EARTHQUAKE AND VIOLENT HURRICANE IN CHILE

By Associated Press.

Lima, Peru, May 1.—Reports of seismic disturbances at Arica, Chile, have been received here. Yesterday the weather was cold and rainy. At 10 o'clock last night a violent hurricane swept over the city and lasted until 4 o'clock this morning. Street lamps were thrown down by the force of the wind. At 7 o'clock this morning a strong earthquake shock was felt there. This was followed by a second wind storm of greater violence than the first. The atmosphere became hot and suffocating and clouds of dust darkened the city. The people of Arica were greatly alarmed and all business houses closed their doors. STATE OF SIEGE HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED AT SALONICA

Constantinople, May 1.—A state of siege has been proclaimed at Salonica and extraordinary military precautions have been ordered everywhere in the empire as it is anticipated that outrages similar to those perpetrated here yesterday may be attempted at Constantinople and elsewhere. It is feared the outrages may lead to massacres of Macedonians and Bulgarians by Mussulmans who are in a state of dangerous excitement.

NECESSARY QUALITIES OF WORK AND BROTHERLY LOVE

President Roosevelt Makes Two Addresses in Topeka—Delivers One at Laying of Y. M. C. A. Building and Another at Auditorium—Railroad Men's Work Is Praised.

By Associated Press.

Topeka, Kas., May 1.—President Roosevelt made two addresses in Topeka tonight—one at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Railroad Y. M. C. A. building and the other at the auditorium before the International convention of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Both addresses were heard by immense crowds of people and were received with the greatest enthusiasm. After the laying of the cornerstone for the Y. M. C. A. building the president was conducted to the residence of Governor Bailey where he was entertained at dinner. His last address was given at 9:30 o'clock. The crowd was very large but so excellent were the police regulations that there was little or no confusion.

The work of putting up decorations began early today. Flags were displayed in great numbers on the store fronts. The entrances to buildings were draped with red, white and blue bunting. Many private residences put out flags and other decorations in honor of the visit. The Harvard colors could be seen in many places along with the red, white and blue.

Every precaution was taken to prevent delay or accident to the president's party in Topeka. H. U. Mudge, general manager of the Santa Fe, ordered that no trains around the depot be moved while the exercises at the laying of the cornerstone were in progress.

An Immense Crowd.

President Roosevelt's train arrived in Topeka an hour late. Over 12,000 people assembled at the site of the new Y. M. C. A. building to welcome him. The delay only seemed to add to the crowd. At 6:50 the booming of cannon announced the arrival of the president north of the river. Soon the train was switched from the Union Pacific to the Santa Fe tracks and run down to the new building. Escorted by a local cavalry company and a squad of mounted police, the president was conducted to a platform. He made a short address and then laid the cornerstone. General Manager Mudge of the Santa Fe presided at the exercises. He presented the president with a silver trowel which had been contributed by the road and with this the president placed the mortar in position. The opening prayer was made by the Rev. H. H. Gregg of St. Louis.

In his address President Roosevelt expressed his pleasure at being in "the geographical center of the United States." He congratulated the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. that they had come to Kansas for their great meeting and said he hoped their meeting would be the most profitable ever held. The president characterized the Railroad Y. M. C. A. as one of the most potent agencies for good in the country in that it tended to make better men of the railroad employes upon whom so much depended.

Guest of Governor Bailey.

The ceremonies occupied 20 minutes. Then the president and his party were escorted to their carriages and driven rapidly to the Copeland hotel. Fourteen carriages were in the procession. Company A of the Kansas National guard acted as guards. A number of the party stopped at the Copeland where they were entertained at dinner by the Y. M. C. A. The president was taken to the residence of Governor Bailey where he was entertained at dinner. As the party passed the state house a large number of old soldiers who were drawn up on the east entrance of the building saluted the president. He returned the salute with dignity. This was arranged by Department Commander Loomis.

Those present at the Governor's dinner were as follows: Elihu Root, secretary of war; Assistant Secretary Barnes, Surgeon General Rixey, Dr. Butler, Judge W. C. Hook of the federal bench, Chief Justice W. A. Johnston of the Kansas supreme bench, Morton Albaugh, chairman of the Republican state central committee; D. W. Mulvane, Republican national committeeman; Senator J. R. Burton, Senator Chester Long, N. H. Loomis of the Union Pacific, M. A. Lowe of the Rock Island, H. J. Boone, secretary to the governor; W. E. Howe of the Atchison Globe, William A. White of the Emporia Gazette.

Among those present at the dinner at the hotel were: Dr. John P. Munn, treasurer of the Vandalia; H. G. Burt, president of the Union Pacific; B. F. Yoakum, president of the Frisco; C. A. Wickersham, president A. Santa & West Point; L. J. Peck, president Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe; T. J. Nichol, New York; H. A. Parker, St. Louis; Colonel John J. McCook, New York.

After dinner at the governor's residence the party proceeded to the Auditorium where the president delivered an address to the delegates of the Y. M. C. A. convention. The large building was jammed with people, but there were thousands who were not privileged to enter.

The president did not arrive at the Auditorium until 10 o'clock, having been detained at the dinner given by Governor Bailey. During the early part of the evening speeches were made by prominent railroad officials who are delegates to the convention.

The president spoke for about 45 minutes, and afterwards held a short reception. At 11 o'clock the entire party was driven back to the depot where the night will be spent on the president's train. At 8 o'clock tomorrow morning the trip will be resumed through Kansas by way of the Union Pacific. Sunday will be spent at Sharon Springs, near the Colorado line.

Good Work of Y. M. C. A.

The president devoted most of his speech to the good work accomplished by the Y. M. C. A. and said that such organizations as the one he was addressing developed the two necessary qualities of work and brotherly love.

"Nothing can be done with a man who will not work," he said. "We have in our scheme of government no room for the man who does not wish to pay his way through life by what he does. A rich man is bound in some way that will make the community better for his existence. Capacity for work is absolutely necessary and no man can be said to live in the true sense of the word if he does not work. If a man is utterly disregardful of the rights of others, if he works simply for the sake of ministering to his own base passions; if he works simply to gratify himself, small is his good in the community. His is of no real use unless together with the quality which enables him to love his fellows, he works with them for the common good of all.

During the trip to the governor's residence this evening, a man named Murphy attempted to get into the president's carriage. He was knocked off by a mounted policeman. He then jumped onto one of the steps with the remark:

"I guess I'll ride here."

One of the secret service men in the carriage by a well-aimed blow sent him rolling into the gutter. He was afterward arrested. The fellow was unarmed and did not contemplate an assault on the president, but tried to enter the carriage out of a mere spirit of bravado. The incident greatly amused the president.

One of the president's guards here tonight was Patrolman McLaughlin, who was a member of Mr. Roosevelt's command at Santiago. McLaughlin was recognized by the president.

MANY DISTINGUISHED MEN ASSEMBLED TO WELCOME EDWARD

By Associated Press.

Paris, May 1.—King Edward arrived here this afternoon and was accorded a hearty reception by republican France. His majesty's welcome at the Dauphine railroad station by President Loubet and the chief officers of staff, and his drive through the avenues of the Bois du Boulogne and the Champs Elysee, presented a succession of brilliant spectacles. Everywhere the population gave the king an enthusiastic greeting. King Edward showed the keenest appreciation of French good will. Only scattered shouts of "Fashoda" and "Krueger" were heard, and they were lost in the tremendous volume of demonstrations. Vast crowds filled the boulevards from the early hours, people struggling to gain vantage points along the route to be followed by the royal procession.

On the square fronting the railroad station was a surging mass of humanity. A detachment of the First cuirassiers kept back the crowds. The front of the station was draped with crimson and gold hangings and the interior was transformed into a superb reception room hung with tapestry and decorated with flowers and plants.

President Loubet was surrounded by the cabinet ministers, the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, the grand commander of the Legion of Honor, the military and naval dignitaries and the diplomatic corps.

As the train entered the station the trumpets sounded a royal salute and the band played "God Save the King."

King Edward descended from his car and advanced slowly and alone, smiling and saluting. He wore the scarlet uniform of a British field marshal, his chapeau topped by waving red and white plumes, and his breast adorned with various insignia, including the Cross of the Legion of Honor. President Loubet stepped forward and grasped the king's hand. The meeting between the sovereign and the president was cordial, almost demonstrative. M. Loubet welcomed the king to France and the king expressed his thanks for the splendid manifestation in his honor.

King Edward and the members of his party entered state carriages with gorgeously clad postilions and outriders, and, escorted by a regiment of cuirassiers, drove to the British embassy. The route of the procession was through the beautiful avenues Bois du Boulogne and the Champs Elysee, arched with chestnut trees in full bloom. The lowering clouds which marked the earlier part of the day had broken up and the sun came forth.

The avenues were lined with solid ranks of dragoons, cuirassiers, horse artillery, field batteries and infantry, guns, helmets and other trappings gleaming in the sunlight. Behind these martial walls the people were banked and all the trees, windows and balconies and house tops were crowded with spectators. It was estimated that half a million people gathered along the line.

At the Arc de Triomphe, the scene was majestic—long, shimmering lines of soldiery and a forest of waving banners, with blaring bugles and rolling drums and succeeding bands taking up "God Save the King." The president and the king were continually acclaimed as they passed through the lines of soldiery. Among the popular occasionally discordant shouts were heard, but the prevailing sentiment was strongly friendly.

King Edward alighted at the British embassy, where apartments had been prepared for him, including a throne room furnished from the art treasures of the Boerghese palace. Above the embassy, transformed into a palace, the royal standard of Great Britain was raised.

The Rue du Faubourg St. Honore was densely packed, and the crowds continuously acclaimed his majesty.

After a brief visit at the embassy King Edward proceeded with an escort to the Elysee palace, where he was received by the president. They remained together alone for some time. Where the king was on his way to the Elysee palace the crowds cheered. Their friendly manner pleased him.

The day was given to elaborate festivities, the government encouraging fetes similar to those of the fourteenth of July. The boulevards were ablaze with color, floral arches and artistic devices symbolical of royalty. Many American flags were displayed and the United States consulate was gay with bunting. Street amusements and dancing were proceeding everywhere and the cafes teemed with merry-makers. Tonight the city presented a fairy-like sight. The facade of the opera house was aglow with a myriad of lights, the column Vendome was crowned with light, and along the boulevards arches supported flaming crowns and other devices welcoming King Edward. Thoroughfares of the city were blocked with a good natured crowd.

President Loubet proceeded to the British embassy at 8 o'clock and escorted the king throughout an illuminated streets to the Theater Francaise to witness the production of "L'Autre Danger." The entire theater was occupied by invited guests of the government, and the audience was made up of the foremost men and women of France. Upon arriving at the theater King Edward paused in the foyer to chat with Prince Murat and other old friends. The audience rose to its feet as the king and the president entered the box on the right of the proscenium. King Edward wore evening dress and seemed to keenly enjoy the performance.

FANATICAL FILIPINO HAS BEEN CAPTURED IN LUZON

By Associated Press.

Manila, May 1.—Governor Cailles of Laguna province, and a party of volunteers, yesterday captured Rios, the fanatical Filipino leader, in that part of the island of Luzon.

Rios was formerly a blacksmith of Tayabas, and claimed to be of divine origin. He attracted many followers and started an insurrection which the constabulary suppressed. He fled to the mountains and later claimed the title of "Pope of Luzon," and also asserted he was a prophet.

Governor Cailles captured Rios in the disguise the latter had worn when appearing as a "prophet." He is said to be guilty of many crimes and will probably be tried for murder.

A fanatical Moro attacked an outpost at Camp Vicars, island of Mindanao, yesterday, and wounded three soldiers before he was killed.

Captain Pershing, in command at Camp Vicars, is preparing to lead a column around the east shore of Lake Lanao. Opposition is expected.

Major General Davis has gone to Benguet to confer with Governor Taft concerning the government for the Moros.

HAY'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RUSSIA'S EXPLANATION

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Hay has made a graceful acknowledgment of Russia's statement of her purposes relative to Manchuria involving her reputation of sinister designs in that quarter. The secretary's note addressed to Count Cassini expresses regret that there should have been even a temporary misconception of doubt as to Russia's position in the matter and seizes the opportunity to return the thanks of this government for the frank and satisfactory declaration of Russian principles. Incidentally, of course, the notes serve to make a permanent record of Russia's position as verbally explained to the United States.

SECRETARY LOEB ILL BUT NOT SERIOUSLY SO

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, May 1.—It was at first feared that William Loeb, secretary to the president, who is ill at the Southern hotel, was threatened with typhoid fever, but Dr. Rentera, the house physician, says the patient will be able to leave Sunday for Albuquerque, N. M., to rejoin President Roosevelt. The secretary was ill when the president's special arrived in St. Louis Wednesday afternoon. He was taken to the Southern hotel and remained in bed during the day as he had a miserable fever.

"I am better now," stated Mr. Loeb. "The fever is all gone and I expect to be up by tomorrow. During the stay in the mountains I caught the mountain fever. I recovered in good shape but went back to work too soon."

RAILROAD Y. M. C. A.'S TO EXTENDED WORK

By Associated Press.

Topeka, Kas., May 1.—Not much actual work was accomplished by the International convention of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. today as most of the time was taken up with making arrangements for the visit of the president tonight.

Two reports were read. Announcement was made this morning that there would be officers elected at this conference. The object of the meeting was defined as being to make plans for the extension of the work, especially into foreign countries. There are now 1,800 or more operators present and more will come in tomorrow. The officers report that the attendance even with those here now exceeds the number attending the last meeting in Philadelphia by 500.

Now that the cornerstone of the new building for the local Railroad Y. M. C. A. has been laid and the visit of the president completed, actual work will be started by the conference. The meetings will last until Sunday night.

SERIOUS WRECK OF A PANHANDLE TRAIN

By Associated Press.

Columbus, O., May 1.—With the danger block set against it, Panhandle train No. 21, bound for Cincinnati on the Little Miami division, struck the derail at the Baltimore & Ohio crossing on the west side early today and was wrecked. The B. & O. passenger train whizzed by a moment later. The Panhandle engine and combination baggage and passenger car were turned completely over and the car coach back of the combination car was dragged into the ditch, but remained upright. The diner and Pullman cars did not leave the track. Baggageman John Gallagher of Xenia, suffered a fracture of the left arm and was cut about the head and face. James Moran of Cincinnati, fireman, was badly injured internally, but jumped in time to save his life. Chas. Kreek, engineer, also of Cincinnati, was cut in the leg, but also saved his life by jumping. C. Daily, an engineer who was riding home in the baggage car, and the news agent were cut about the head by broken glass. The passengers were imprisoned in the train, it being vestibuled, and many leaped from the windows. The Panhandle train left Columbus at 7:30 a. m. Engineer Kreek approached the crossing cautiously, knowing that the B. & O. passenger train was about due. Spurs from a switch engine obscured the signals and the train ran into the derail and was derailed.

THE WESTERN UNION HAS SECURED AN INJUNCTION

By Associated Press.

Helena, Mont., May 1.—In the United States court today Judge Knowles granted a temporary order restraining the various labor organizations of Butte from in any manner interfering with the Western Union Telegraph company and citing the unions to show cause May 7 why the order should not be made permanent.

The Western Union has not been doing business here or more than a week, owing to the fact that because of a dispute with its messengers, some of its employes were assaulted. The officers of the telegraph company say they will open up for business in Butte at noon Saturday.

It is not known when the appeals will be heard by the full court but it is stated an early date will be fixed. The application for an injunction against voting the Union Pacific stock was filed by Judge Lurton and the Southern Pacific election was passed awaiting the hearing of the application of Judge Lurton's ruling.

CHINA'S NEW CONTRACT WITH WORLD'S EXPOSITION—CHINESE ARE CONFIDENT KNOWING HOW POWERLESS THEY ARE TO RESIST RUSSIAN DEMANDS.

By Associated Press.

London, May 2.—In a dispatch from Peking the correspondent of the Times says that in an interview held on Wednesday with all the ministers of the Chinese office, M. Plancon, Russian charge d'affaires, pressed for reasons for the rejection of the Russian demands, the ministers replied that they were unable to give the reasons separately. M. Plancon then, on behalf of his government, requested a statement of China's intentions regarding, first, the contemplated alienation by the government of Mongolia; second, the non-alienation by lease, concession or otherwise of any portion of the Liao valley to any other power, and third, the opening of new treaty ports in Manchuria.

To the first clause the minister replied that the intention had not yet received imperial sanction; to the second that China had no intention of alienating any of her territory and to the third that the opening of ports would depend upon trade developments.

M. Plancon professed to be satisfied with these replies, but the Chinese are still uncomfortable, knowing how powerless they are to resist Russia's demands. It is announced that M. Lessar, the Russian minister to China, is returning to Peking and that the fulfilment of the terms of the Manchurian convention will not be proceed until after his arrival and will result from his negotiations.

The fact that Russia now appears anxious to repudiate the orders given M. Plancon, concludes the Times correspondent, "does not mean that the demands have been abandoned. By these orders Russia has acquainted China with what she expects."

CONTRACTS WERE AWARDED

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, May 1.—"Inter national day" at the exposition was carried out as originally planned, but there were numerous delays that brought the conclusion of the exercises about three hours later than was originally intended.

The breakfast to the diplomats was apparently greatly enjoyed by the 300 people who participated.

At the conclusion of the meal President Francis proposed a toast to the foreign representatives, "whose presence indicates the friendliness of their governments and of their good wishes toward the Louisiana Purchase exposition."

The day was devoted to greetings by and responses by representatives of foreign nations, which will have buildings at the fair, the proceedings constituting the dedication of the foreign section.

The history of the Louisiana purchase, under its three sovereignties—Spain, France and the United States—was suggested in the appearance of three speakers, Senor Cuado, the Spanish minister, M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and D. R. Francis, president of the exposition.

The Liberal Arts building, where the exercises took place, still wore its dress of yesterday—the mingled colors of Spain, France and the United States—and in the speeches the trinity of interests in the exposition was noted.

President Francis, in welcoming the foreign representatives, spoke in part as follows:

"The universal exposition of 1904 extends a cordial greeting to the distinguished representatives of foreign countries who favor us by their presence on this memorable occasion. An assembling of envoys of organized governments, however limited in their number, and whatever the object may be, is characteristic of a high civilization; but when that convening is general in its character as is this, it indicates marked progress in the establishment of a better understanding between nations and interests long antagonistic and at variance. And when the object of such a meeting is, as in this case, to establish and cement friendly relations between people who differ in form of government, in religion and in race, it means a distinct step toward the organization of a parliament of man, an accomplishment worthy of the highest endeavor because its consummation would result in a universal peace.

"When the delegations of this congress in friendly rivalry their zeal for acquaintance engenders increased respect. The closer commercial relations that follow are conducive to mutual benefit. They efface prejudices, they broaden sympathies, they deepen and widen the foundations of human progress.

"The international exposition whose dedication you honor by your presence was conceived in an effort to commemorate a great achievement which has proven a potent factor in increasing our wealth and sustaining our institutions and perpetuating our independence. The interest manifested by the governments and peoples you represent in pledges of participation has been encouraging and helpful in the highest degree, and we are glad of this opportunity to express our deep gratitude. Your coming enables us to show you the character and scope of the undertaking we have launched. Our aims are ambitious and our hopes high but we are energetic and untiring and with your recognition and assistance we expect to carry to a successful consummation an enterprise which will not only assemble the natural resources of the earth and bring together the best products of human skill, but will be the occasion for eliciting the expression of the best thought and for the classifying and systematizing of human knowledge. We hope this exposition will be an epoch of the progress of the world from the beginning of history."

President Cleveland will leave for home tomorrow morning.

Following the exercises in the Liberal Arts building tomorrow the site of each state building will be dedicated. All these dedications will take place at about the same time, the exercises being in the hands of the various states' representatives who will be escorted to the sites by the officials of the exposition.

THEATRICAL STRIKES CENTER ARE AVERTED

By Associated Press.

Denver, May 1.—The threatened strikes in the building places of Denver have been averted and those which were on have been declared off pending arbitration. The tinners who have been out for several weeks came to an agreement with the master tinners this morning and will return to work Monday. The electric wire workers struck for an increase in wages this morning but tonight agreed to return to work Monday and submit their claims to arbitration. The same action was taken by the structural iron workers.

The teamsters are still out and little headway has been made in the efforts to bring about a settlement of their strike.

At a meeting of the Smelter men's union at Elyria tonight it was announced that the union now includes 800 men and is rapidly taking in new members. As soon as the smelter employes of the state are thoroughly organized, said former Lieutenant Governor Coates, organizer for the American Labor union, a general demand will be made for the eight-hour day. This, he said, may come as early as June 1. Mr. Coates declared that the Smelter trust is employing men on the eight-hour plan in Montana, Utah and Idaho, while demanding 12 hours work in Colorado. The Western Federation of Miners, he said, is determined to establish the eight-hour day in Colorado smelters. The smeltermen will have the solid support of the miners of Colorado in the demand, he promised them.

FIVE MORE CAPIAS CASES

Two more capiases were served from the grand jury yesterday directed against Eulah Davenport, who is charged with conducting a house of ill fame in Colorado City, and against Gus Hames. Their arrests followed. Bail in the sum of $500 was required in each case. It was charged that the offense of Hames, who is well known in Colorado City, comes under the statute as keeping a disorderly house.

There are several more capiases in the hands of Undersheriff Grimes, waiting to be served. In connection with the operation of disorderly houses, gambling is being looked into. It is said that over 20 indictments were returned yesterday by the jury, but no information was obtainable either from the officers of the court or the sheriff's office when the capiases would be served or the names of those indorsed upon the papers.

About Fire Escapes.

The jury has had explained the statutes requiring fire escapes upon large buildings and it is understood that a thorough examination will be conducted over the city and in Colorado City.

Marguerite Epps is still in the county jail. With the arrest of Eulah Davenport last night seven women have now been arrested with one more capias containing the charge of conducting a house of ill fame, to serve. The jury is getting through with a supposed to be preliminary work in rapid fashion. The special committee appointed to examine the books of the county treasurer, the bonds of the clerk of the court and other clerical matters, is also at work. The committee is proceeding upon its investigation of the books of the county treasurer's office, while the grand jury meets in the large court room of division one of the district court.

The jury occupies the 12 chairs given to the use at the regular jury while facing them is a table for the use of District Attorney Trowbridge and Prosecutor George Gardner. One witness at a time is admitted to the box and the witness stand is to one side of the table and immediately among the 12 men. The district attorney or Attorney Gardner examines the witnesses and the jurors interrogate, whenever they deem it necessary, for their enlightenment.

Colorado City Officials.

The city officials of Colorado City state they have no reason to fear an investigation. Police Magistrate James P. Bater, into whose office the fines have been turned, states that they have been collected under a city ordinance and he has followed the custom of his predecessors in office. During his incumbency $14,000 in fines has been turned over to the city treasurer.

[illegible]ORTANT PURCHASE BY [illegible] MINING COMPANY IN DRAINAGE TUNNELS

A writ to [illegible] was prepared by the parties sent to Cripple Creek this morning yesterday by the attorneys of the defendants in the suit of the Cripple Creek Tunnel and Transportation company vs. the El Paso Mining company. The complaint of the plaintiffs is for damages in the sum of $[illegible] for an alleged breach of contract, and the motion to dismiss is based upon a section of the statutes which exempts all corporations from paying a tax of 3 cents on each $100 valuation of the capital stock.

This section further provides that unless such tax has been paid the corporation cannot bring, maintain or defend a suit at law. The defendant claims that as this section has not been complied with by the plaintiff corporation, the suit now pending in the Cripple Creek courts is without foundation and should be dismissed on application.

The plaintiff's complaint alleges that a contract was entered into several years ago between the El Paso Mining company and the Cripple Creek Tunnel and Transportation company, whereby it was agreed that the El Paso company should pay one-half the cost of raising water out of its shaft to the surface for the privilege of raising it half way and running it into the tunnel of the Cripple Creek Tunnel and Transportation company. The El Paso company admits the terms of the contract but denies that more than $3,000 is owing under it.

The point raised in the motion to dismiss, according to the attorneys for the El Paso company has never been raised before in the state and its outcome will be watched by attorneys. The tax provided for in the statutes must be paid in May of every year but according to the records of such tax the attorneys for the El Paso company say that the Cripple Creek Tunnel and Transportation company has never paid it at any time. The point as to the constitutionality of the law may be raised by the latter company. If it is, the decision will then hinge upon that point and the suit will become more interesting than it would be in the event it should turn upon the question of fact; that is whether or not the tax had been paid.

[illegible] A [illegible] IN THE [illegible]

Lieut. Richmond P. Hobson, "the hero of the Merrimac," will arrive in the city this morning. [illegible] for his way have been made at the Antlers hotel and an extended program for the day has been arranged by those who will have charge of his lecture in the evening. He will be accompanied by the veteran platform reader, J. B. Pond, who will be with him during the carrying out of the day's program. A visit to the ball park is included in the pleasures for the afternoon and several drives over the city have been arranged. It is probable that Major Pond will be entertained while in the city having been a guest at the home of Dr. T. G. Hope when here on a previous occasion.

A trip to the summit of Pike's Peak is planned for tomorrow together with a drive to the Garden of the Gods.

Lieut. Hobson's lecture this evening at the Temple theater promises to be well attended. His daring exploit in the harbor of Santiago and his work in the navy department since the close of the Spanish-American war are as well known to the residents of Colorado Springs as any other part of the country, and his lecture is expected to furnish those who hear him a closer insight into his real character.

LIEUT. RICHMOND P. HOBSON.

[illegible] AN A[illegible] FAIRY[illegible] NEEDLE[illegible]

What to all appearances was an attempt to set fire to the Fairley Brothers undertaking establishment on East Pike's Peak avenue last night was frustrated by Coroner David Law. About 9:15 o'clock Mr. Law and several men in the office of the undertaking rooms were called to the door by the cries of fire and upon investigation found that the box room, in the rear of the undertaking rooms, was in flames. Mr. Law hastily formed a bucket brigade and succeeded in putting out the fire before any damage had been done, and before the arrival of the fire department.

The box room is a small shed about [illegible] feet and is used for storing [illegible]. A number of boards and [illegible] of kindling had been saturated with oil and the whole had been lighted, apparently by someone who was desirous of burning down the establishment. A small lard pail was found in the shed which had evidently been used in pouring the oil on the boards and the lid of the pail was also left filled with oil. A number of boards in the fence were charred by the flames, but owing to the fact that the fire was discovered in time, the flames did not reach the main building. A large amount of excelsior used in bedding [illegible] was in the shed and had the flames reached this, a disastrous fire might have resulted as there are a number of buildings around the shed and with the high wind that was blowing [illegible] would easily have spread. [illegible] fresh air warehouse stands in the rear of the [illegible] on the alley.

[illegible] no clew to the identity of the incendiary, and Mr. Law [illegible] to account for the [illegible] but to not [illegible] the person who gave the alarm could not be learned.

The fire department was called to the rear of 501 North Nevada about 10:30 o'clock last night. Flying sparks from an ash pit caused the alarm. On account of the high wind Chief Baty and Assistant Clyde McReynolds of the fire department remained up a greater part of the night.

EVERYBODY WILL MAKE A HOLIDAY OF AN[illegible]

The Merchants association has agreed that all dry goods and clothing and shoe stores shall close at 3 o'clock Monday for the remainder of the day, so that business men and their employes may have an opportunity to participate in the gala occasion of President Roosevelt's visit. The Retail Grocers association and other bodies of business men will probably decide to close their stores early in the afternoon, and everybody will join in extending a royal welcome to the nation's head.

A meeting of the central committee in charge of the reception in Colorado Springs to President Roosevelt and his party Monday afternoon was held at the El Paso club last evening. Invitations to guests of the city were mailed and the final details in regard to the disposal of the presidential party were arranged.

Chairman W. W. Wood of the reception committee, issued the following official statement:

"In view of the fact that the space is very confined on the eastern balcony of the Antlers hotel, the balcony from which the president will make his speech to the citizens of Colorado Springs, only a limited number of invitations will be issued. This was also necessary because of the fact that invitations have been sent by the executive committee to city and county officials throughout the southern and southwestern part of the state, a customary courtesy which has prevailed everywhere during the president's trip. My personal desire is that all the people should see and hear the chief executive. I am only sorry that we cannot have a space large enough to accommodate our 30,000 inhabitants. It is a great event in the history of our city and if the plans as outlined by the various committees are carried out with the assistance of our citizens, Colorado Springs should certainly make a great impression on the president and his party.

One Hundred Invitations.

"Only about 100 invitations in all can be issued, in addition to the ones sent out by the executive committee. We received tonight a report from the committee on decorations and we are much pleased at the result of their work. The people along the route of the procession are enthused and all matters looking to the reception of President Roosevelt and the decoration of the city are well in hand. W. S. Reynolds has undertaken the work of extending the ropes and the spaces will be adequately protected. My endeavor is to have an absolute system and every indication points to the successful fulfillment of this idea. The citizens generally are showing the greatest of interest and there is no doubt that Colorado Springs will outdo herself. The citizens generally are co-operating not only with the committees but with the police and as the route of the procession extends over five miles of territory there will be no occasion for crowding or a jam at any point."

It has been decided that 12 carriages will be all that are necessary for the drive. The plans of the decoration committee are being carried out upon suggestions of the 15 chairmen, each of whom has four blocks to look after. E. A. Sawyer, the general chairman of the committee on decorations, has been very active in getting out and outlining the work of the subsidiary committees and the statement made several days ago that the president and party will drive through streets that will be veritable walls of color, will be borne out in brilliant manner.

President's Train.

The officials of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad yesterday received a description of the president's train. The train will be turned over to the Rio Grande from the Union Pacific at Denver at 9:15 a. m., May 4. It consists of five cars, as follows, one baggage car, one baggage, cold lunch and smoker, one 12-compartment Pullman sleeper, "Sebago," one 12-compartment Pullman sleeper, "Texas," one 2-compartment sleeper, "Elysium."

A special coach may be added at Denver. The Union depot at Denver is left, according to schedule, at 1:30 p. m. and the train is due at Colorado Springs at 3:40 p. m. It pulls out of the Rio Grande depot at Colorado Springs at 5:15 p. m., and is handed over to the Santa Fe at El Moro, Colorado, for the west at 10:40 p. m. The train is one of the handsomest that has been seen in Colorado Springs for years.

The executive committee comprising Mayor Harris, J. B. Fairley and Congressman Frank D. Brooks has sent to the city and county officials throughout the state south and west of Colorado Springs the following invitation:

Official Invitation.

"Colorado Springs, April 29, 1903.

"Dear Sir:—The committee having charge of the exercises in honor of the president's visit to Colorado Springs on Monday, May 4, very cordially requests you to be present at that time. The exercises will be very simple, but several seats will be provided for visitors, where they can see and hear the president to the best advantage, and such further attention as the time allows will be extended.

"This invitation will be your credentials, the presentation of which will secure your admission to the reserved balcony at joining the president's platform. An early reply is requested."

As was stated in the Gazette yesterday morning, Monday afternoon will be generally observed as a half holiday. Yesterday all the dry goods, clothing and shoe stores decided to close their doors at 3 p. m. and other business establishments will adopt the same course.

President G. W. Bierbauer of the McKinley club, has issued a notice stating that as the club has been designated as one of the bodies to act as escort for the president, it is desired that as big a turnout as possible be had. President Bierbauer states he will deem it a great favor if all those who can attend will advise him promptly that he may know upon whom he can depend.

[illegible] NEW [illegible]

City Treasurer W. H. Hoagland took formal charge of his office at the city hall yesterday. He will open a new set of books, ex-Treasurer John A. Voorhees retaining his accounts until they have been passed upon by the finance committee.

The bond of the treasurer's office has become a knotty problem for the members of the finance committee and it is not yet known what action will finally be taken in the premises. The bond at present required is $100,000, and such a guarantee has already been placed in the hands of the finance committee by Treasurer Hoagland. It is probable that the council at its meeting Monday night will approve the bond as filed, but it may be that the finance committee will within a few weeks recommend a bond in a higher sum.

This action is thought probable in the light of the fact that the sale of bonds during the coming year will place in the hands of the city treasurer over $500,000 in addition to the regular funds of the office. This is more money than has passed through the hands of a city treasurer for some time.

It was considered possible yesterday that a special meeting of the council would be held during the day for the purpose of acting on the bond of the new treasurer, it being later decided, however, that the matter could properly be brought up at the regular meeting Monday night. The meeting was considered for the reason that there was some doubt about the release of Voorhees' bondsmen unless the bond of his successor was approved. This doubt was cleared through legal advice, however, and the special meeting was abandoned.

IN HONOR OF THE PRESIDENT.

The Johnson & Wilbur Mercantile company will close their store at 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon, May 4, and will remain closed the rest of the day. This is to give their employes an opportunity of seeing and hearing the president of the United States, who visits Colorado Springs on that day.

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

Last Days at the Old [illegible]

All of the remaining county offices, with the district court, will be moved to their quarters in the new county court house today. Preparations for the removal were being made in all these offices yesterday and all the records were got in shape for moving. The records of the district clerk's office and the office of the county clerk will require several boxes to receive and nearly a day will be necessary to get them properly put away in the files at the new court house.

Judge Orr will be the first of the judges to occupy his new quarters, it being his intention to start Monday morning. The district court will be held in the old building today and Monday for the reason that all preparations have been made for hearing the cases that will come up during that time. It is also the intention of the district clerk to get the court rooms and court records in shape for use Tuesday and the judges will take charge of their rooms at that time. Monday is motion day in the district court but it is thought that most of the cases will go over owing to the visit of President Roosevelt on that day, and there will, therefore, be practically no work done.

The sheriff's office will be moved, but it is understood that the grand jury will continue to meet in its present quarters until Tuesday. It is probable that no session of the grand jury will be held on Monday owing to the president's visit and the work of today can be transacted without the immediate presence of the sheriff. With the desertion of the old building by the district judges on Tuesday, the last county officer will have taken up his quarters in the new court house and the old buildings will be turned over to the agent of the Stratton estate for remodeling according to the statement given out by him some time ago.

The old court rooms will be turned into lodge halls and the county offices on the ground floor will be remodeled into offices and store rooms. With this change put into effect the old county court house will have passed into history.

highly enjoyed the exercises attendant upon the formal opening of that department.

At 6 o'clock the boys were seated, 110 strong, at a fine banquet spread in their honor by the Mothers auxiliary. Others present were Prof. E. S. Parsons, Rev. L. E. Brown, General Secretary W. H. The tables were handsomely ornamented with quantities of large pink and white carnations and ferns, the [illegible] included in the bill of fare were cold boiled ham, escalloped potatoes, pickles, bread and butter, a great variety of nice cake, ice cream and cocoa.

The delegation from the Woman's auxiliary serving were Mrs. H. H. Soldomridge, chairman of the entertainment committee; Mrs. John Lennox, Mrs. Frank M. Weathers, Mrs. C. L. Holmer, Mrs. J. H. Mayor [illegible]

The negotiations for the appointment of an arbitration board to take up the claim of Leslie W. Popejoy against the county commissioners, has not yet been brought to a definite point. An agreement may be reached today, unless the county commissioners refuse to sign the stipulation drawn up by the attorneys for Popejoy. All day yesterday the attorneys for both sides were engaged in conferences and an agreement was finally reached between them regarding the matter in which the arbitration board should be selected.

By the terms of this agreement, it is thought that both sides should [illegible] within three days from the signing of the agreement, and that these two should select a third within the five days that followed. Should they fail to agree on the third arbitrator, then the attorneys for the respective sides should select the third. This agreement was reached in the office of Gunnell, Chinn & Miller, attorneys for Popejoy, at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, and County Attorney R. L. Chambers off for the purpose, it was understood, of presenting the agreement to the county commissioners for their consideration. William H. Fairall stated last night, however, that Mr. Chambers had not been to the commissioner's office with such a stipulation, and that nothing of that nature had been signed by the commissioners. The attorneys for Popejoy had received no answer from Mr. Chambers last night.

When Mr. Chambers was asked in regard to the matter last night he seemed to resent the question, declaring that his office was not public in character and refusing to give out any information whatever regarding the action of the county commissioners in the matter.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SEVERAL COURTS

Louis Stein, a junk dealer, was arrested yesterday charged with having bought a new mowing machine belonging to Clement Hall. Hall alleges that the machine was stolen from him and the charge against Stein is that of purchasing stolen property. Stein has been in police court on several occasions charged with similar offenses. His trial on this occasion will be held in Justice McClelland's court.

J. B. Cassday was fined $5 and costs in the police court yesterday on a charge of disturbance. Judge S. H. Kinsley appeared as a witness and testified that Cassday had struck him Thursday afternoon while they were talking together at the corner of Pike's Peak avenue and Tejon street.

County Judge Orr has appointed L. H. Rouse as probationary officer under the provisions of the juvenile law. He will have charge of the boys arrested and tried under the law and will act in the stead of Judge Orr during his absence.

ADVERTISING THE TOWN OF MANITOU

The first edition of the 50,000 pamphlets advertising Manitou and vicinity is out. Nearly 20,000 have already been sent out, some going to Kansas City, some to St. Louis and a large number to the different railroads for distribution at stations along their lines. The pamphlet contains a map showing the places of interest within a radius of two miles of Manitou. The attractions in the way of mineral springs, scenery and general environment are set forth and a list of the hotels in the city is given. The circulars are issued by the Manitou Business Men's association at a considerable expense.

PLACED ON RECORD WITH COUNTY CLERK

Two special warranty deeds were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday, conveying to the Colorado Springs Electric company lots 21 and fractional lot 22 of block 187 of Colorado City. The first deed was from Horace R. Quimby to J. M. Dillon and the second from Dillon to the Colorado Springs Electric company.

A notice of claim was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by Thomas Bonner, Charles Chambers and Sophia Steele. The claim is situated in the Jack Pot lode, of the Cheyenne mountain mining district.

Agent Hoyt of Santa Fe Returns From Western Trip—In and Out of the Railroad Offices, and Over the Country.

C. C. Hoyt, city passenger agent of the Santa Fe, returned yesterday from a trip to California. Mr. Hoyt visited several cities along the coast and found that hundreds of the tourists who are now in California will return east through Colorado Springs. This will continue until the middle of June.

"The advertising that has been distributed along the coast," said Mr. Hoyt, "will result in benefit to Colorado Springs of thousands of dollars. San Francisco, San Diego, Los Angeles, all the resort places are literally plastered with advertising matter put up by the representatives of the chamber of commerce. Large posters inviting everyone to visit the 'City of Sunshine', meet the pedestrian at street corners, in hotel rotundas and along the country roads. The city is so well known by its catchy appellation that when I was introduced to strangers and it was mentioned that I was from Colorado Springs the inevitable inquiry would be made, 'Oh, are you from the City of Sunshine?'

In the Swim.

"The friendliest feeling toward Colorado and its resorts is evinced by the hotel, railroad men and by the California tourists generally. Those who are mostly interested in the business the tourists give to California, which amounts to millions of dollars annually, realize that it is to the advantage of the advertising bureaus of both states to work on the commercial basis. That is, our advertising is liberally displayed throughout California while California literature by the ton is scattered throughout Colorado in ticket offices, hotels, chambers of commerce and information bureaus. There is no doubt that each state is benefited by this exchange. And the business in tourist traffic to each state will grow constantly as a result.

"I had not been to California for 15 years and it was with the keenest relish that I inhaled great draughts of salt-laden air from the sea. I discovered that it was impossible to retain a crease in the clothes one made clothing heavy. For the first few days I shivered from cold, much to the amusement of the older residents of California, who are accustomed to the ocean breezes. In several houses where Mrs. Hoyt and myself made calls the mistress of the house, as a rule, but the beauty of the California climate is that one soon becomes acclimated. I realized, from my own taste, why it is that Californians and easterners who spend the winter here are glad to come to the foothills of Colorado, and why so many make side trips to get into our mountains. They need the dry, bracing, invigorating air and sunshine and this to top off the benefit received in the lower altitudes and by the salt tonic sends them to the east or to their inland homes practically regenerated in point of energy and health."

Hans Westgaard, traveling passenger agent of the International Mercantile Marine company, with western offices in Chicago, called upon Colorado Springs railroad men yesterday looking after business for his company. The visit of Mr. Westgaard will be followed by calls from representatives of other large steamship lines both mercantile and passenger carriers. Mr. Westgaard states that this city is among the heaviest shippers for its size among inland points.

R. A. Gill, who secured the contract for the construction of the rail for miles of the Denver, Yankee Hill and Western railway, which will run from Central City through Russell Gulch to Glacier City, and eventually to a connection with the Moffat road, announced yesterday that the contract for the new road having been let work would be pushed. The new road will give the Moffat line a branch to the southern portion of Gilpin county. The company announces that it will employ an engineer to make daily inspections with the purpose of seeing that the work is being done according to the contract and in first-class workmanlike manner. There are several engineering propositions to be met with in the 16 miles of line. The heaviest grade the engineers will contend with will be four per cent, or the same as on the steepest portions of the South Park branch of the Colorado and Southern.

The passenger department of the Colorado and Southern is distributing thousands of large engravings of President Roosevelt throughout the state. The Colorado Springs office yesterday received a package of 50 and as an indication of the interest manifested in the approaching visit of the president, applications were received all day for copies. A few were left at the office last evening.

A Hospital Case

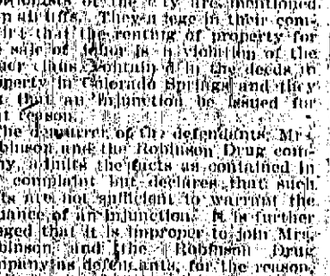
There was a hurry call for the ambulance of the City Hospital. In the course of a few moments a very sick woman was brought in on a stretcher—she was pale as death and evidently suffering keen agony. There was a hasty examination and consultation, and in less than a quarter of an hour the poor creature was on the operating table to undergo an operation for ovaritis.

The above is an accurate account of an incident which occured in New York recently; the young woman in question had warnings enough of her dangerous condition in the terrible pains and burning sensation low down in her left side. She had no one to advise her, and she suffered torture until it was too late for anything to save her life.

Women should remember that if they do not care to tell a doctor their troubles, they should be willing to tell them to a woman, who stands ever ready to advise and help them. Again we state that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is freely and confidentially given to every one who asks for it. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The following letters prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the power to cure, and does cure thousands of cases of inflammation of the ovaries, womb, and all other derangements of the female organism.

MRS. OTTOSON SAVED FROM A SURGICAL OPERATION.



"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot thank you enough for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. If it had not been for your medicine, I think I would have died.

"I will tell you how I suffered. I could hardly walk, was unable to sleep or eat. Menstruation was irregular. At last I had to stay in my bed and flowed so badly that they sent for a doctor, who said I had inflammation of the ovaries, and must go through an operation, as no medicine could help me, but I could not do that.

"I received a little book of yours, and after reading it I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now a well woman. I shall praise your medicine as long as I live, and also recommend the same to any one suffering as I was."—MRS. MINNIE OTTOSON, Otho, Iowa. (June 9, 1901.)

Follow the record of this medicine, and remember that these thousands of cures of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Moral—Stick to the medicine that you know is Best. Write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

INFLAMMATION OF THE OVARIES CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

"I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and did decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—MISS ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga. Treasurer St. Francis Benevolent Association.

[illegible] Are Rendered [illegible]

A demurrer was filed by the defendants yesterday in the suit of Dr. J. C. Chamberlain and other Prohibitionists against Minnie S. M. Robinson and the Robinson Drug company. The suit was filed several weeks ago for the purpose of securing an injunction against the defendants to restrain them from renting their premises for the sale of liquor as a beverage, and a number of Prohibitionists of the city are mentioned as plaintiffs. They allege in their complaint that the renting of property for the sale of liquor is a violation of the liquor laws pertaining to the deeds to property in Colorado Springs and they ask that an injunction be issued for that reason.

The demurrer of the defendants, Mrs. Robinson and the Robinson Drug company, admits the facts as contained in the complaint but declares that such facts are not sufficient to warrant the issuance of an injunction. It is further alleged that it is improper to join Mrs. Robinson and the Robinson Drug company as defendants, for the reason, it is stated, that there is no interest shown to exist between them and that without such interest show they cannot be joined as defendants. It is understood also that the court will be asked to allow an amendment to the demurrer which it is expected will allege that the plaintiffs have no right to bring such an action for the reason, as maintained by the attorneys for the defendants, that the Colorado Springs company is the only party that can bring a suit to forfeit the title under the liquor laws and that it is also the only party that can bring a suit in injunction.

The case will come up for trial during the latter part of the May term.

In the county court yesterday a demurrer was filed to the complaint of William Goshen, against Joseph H. Ryan, wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover $1,000 as commission alleged to be due for the sale of a ranch belonging to the defendant, for $13,000. Goshen filed his complaint some weeks ago. He alleges that he was employed by Ryan to find a purchaser for the ranch in question at the amount stipulated. He was successful in his employment and succeeded in selling the property to the Portland Gold Mining company. As compensation he claims the sum of $1,000 and alleges that Ryan has so far refused to pay him.

The demurrer filed yesterday by Ryan admits the facts but declares that they are not sufficient to entitle Goshen to the relief he seeks.

The creditors of Cora K. Harrison will be paid 10 per cent on their claims within the next few days under the provisions of an order issued in the district court yesterday. The claims amount in all to $917.25, there being 10 claimants in all. The order is directed to Frederick B. White, trustee of the property, and the payments will be made by him. In the order to probate the last will and testament of Chester A. Morrison, issued in the district court yesterday, a further peculiar condition exists which disqualifies County Judge Orr from passing on any of the matters connected with the settlement of the estate. Judge Orr's name appears on the will as one of the subscribing witnesses and he has to that extent an interest in the matter which will make it necessary to secure another judge to attend to the proceeding of the will.

The case of E. R. Joyce against M. E. Spillane will be called for hearing in the district court Monday morning. The matter before the court is a demurrer filed by Spillane to the complaint of the plaintiff.

A representative of the Gazette called yesterday upon Henry L. Wills, president of the Colorado Springs Real Estate exchange, and inquired of him whether he had seen in the issue of the Gazette of that day the report of a suit brought for commission in the court of a local justice of the peace. Mr. Wills replied that he had. On being asked as to how it met the views of the exchange, Mr. Wills said that it was a matter of great surprise to the members. He was then asked whether the decision, as stated in the Gazette, was in accordance with the custom and understanding in selling real estate transactions in Colorado Springs. Mr. Wills replied that this was the first instance of the kind that he had ever heard, and that such a law certainly seemed most unfair. On being asked the reason, he said that one could readily see that a broker might perform a very valuable service in disposing of a property of large value and that, if mortgaged to approximately the value of the property, the agent would receive only a very inadequate compensation for its services. Indeed, I feel a ruling should be established it would be to some an inducement to mortgage heavily to yield the property offered for sale, he explained, in order to prevent an agent's receiving a fair compensation, and that he was quite certain that no broker whose services were liable to be of public would list property for sale on such arrangement. Under this decision it would often happen that an agent selling a property for $50,000 would receive less compensation than if the sale had been of a $25,000 lot, and on this basis there would be no fixed percentage of compensation for services performed, but the proportion of the mortgage to the value of the property continually varies. The representative also saw Mr. Adams, of the firm of Adams & Williams, and Chas. T. Bennett, directors of the exchange, and they not indorsed fully the statements of President Wills.

TRAFFIC SUSPENDED—Traffic was suspended for the day yesterday on the Cog road from Manitou to the summit of the peak on account of the damage caused to the track by a boulder rolling down from the mountain side. The rock fell on the track about two miles above the Manitou station. It is expected that the repairs will be made today so that trains can run tomorrow.

BROKE ORDINANCE—George R. Keys and Frank Carter, colored, were arrested by Officers Coffman and Ryer yesterday afternoon for dumping garbage at Tejon and Las Vegas streets. They were ordered to appear in police court this morning.

Marshall, the Des Moines catcher, who reminds the fans very much of Hausen in appearance, made a fine catch of Fleming's foul yesterday afternoon, taking the ball from the wire of the left bleacher.

George Nill displayed the headwork of a general yesterday afternoon. Nill's work at second brought forth loud applause from the stand and bleachers.

Here's hoping that the Millionaires may be tomorrow where they are today, and also at the end of the season.

SOUTHERN UMPIRES.

The Boston players have some queer stories to tell of the umpires of the southern country, especially at Louisville and Birmingham, where their umpires were caught tipping off the pitchers' signs. Kittridge, the Boston catcher, says he was told to look out for the umpire in both places, and found that they were tipping the signs, so he put up a job and switched the signs every now and then, making the batsman often strike at balls yards wide of the plate. Callahan of Chicago, and several other magnates claim the umpires in the south have worked with the home teams with signals.

...ONANZA STREAK

...nounced by Cripple Creek Enterprise Gold Mining Company —The Month's Work With Numerous Shipments.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, May 1.—The most important piece of news that has been given out of the district for a great many months is going out tonight over a bonanza streak of ore which was encountered yesterday in a level run out at 300 feet from the shaft of the Cripple Creek Enterprise G. M. company.

Assays obtained last evening gave values of $490.80 and $79.20, respectively. Manager Hanley of the property was afraid that W. H. Strout & Son, assayers, who made the assay, had made a mistake, although it was plain to be seen that about 12 inches of the rock he was breaking was very good-looking ore. The night shift made good a way on the streak, and his morning three more samples were taken and given to L. X. Smith for assay. They were out at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and this is the result. No. 1 $438; No. 2, $657.60; No. 3, $805.50. This is surely a bonanza rock, and it looks as if another great mine had been opened in the district, and what is more, in the city limits of Cripple Creek, although it is a little too early to make a positive statement regarding this.

As is well known, the Cripple Creek Enterprise G. M. company has a tramway from the City of Cripple Creek to mine under the streets and alleys, and for this it is to pay a small royalty on all ore sold. Chicago capitalists, believing the franchise was valuable, were glad to back Mr. Hanley in the ground. Everyone was aware that many strong leads passed through the city, and it has been the manager's contention that at a comparatively shallow depth they would be found to be highly mineralized, and from the assays he got today it is indicated that his opinion was well founded. This is really the first vein that has been cut and just what the many others will do, cannot be stated at this time.

Many of the citizens are excited over the new find in this property and many new profits that a bonanza will be opened within 100 feet of the National hotel. Mr. Hanley was warmly congratulated on all sides for his good fortune this afternoon.

April Output.

The production from the Golden Cycle property for last month reached the handsome figures of 3,500 tons of ore, while the Vindicator, her near neighbor, sent out 1,500 tons. This was a little low for the Vindicator, but as No. 3 has been closed the entire month, it roots up a fair average. The present month will run considerably higher, as Lapeto and Jones commenced operating today on No. 2 mine which they have under lease. The close-down was caused by necessary repairs that had to be made both in the shaft and in the machinery.

Katinka.

Charles Waldron, operating under lease the August Flower property of the Katinka company, sent out a two carload shipment today to the smelter, that is expected to run three ounces or better to the ton.

Abe Lincoln.

Two carloads of ore is the usual shipment that goes out from the Abe Lincoln property up Poverty gulch. The ore sent out today was consigned to the smelter and it is expected to run in the neighborhood of $80 to the ton.

Installing Machinery.

Charles Perkins, operating under lease the Compromise Fraction and the Deadwood claims, are installing in the steam plant of machinery at the present time. From the last-named claim a carload of ore was sent out today that will return values of $50 to the ton in gold.

Acacia.

A small shipment was sent out this afternoon from the Clark lease on the south end of the Burns of the Acacia company. The ore will net the lessee in the neighborhood of $700 to the ton in gold.

Free Coinage.

Wilhelm and others operating under lease a block of the Wilson claim of the Free Coinage company, sent out a two-carload shipment yesterday that will return values of $40 to the ton. Another block of the same claim, operated under lease by Underwood and others, sent out a carload of the same ore of $80 ore.

Pinto.

Harry Shell, leasing on the Pinto property, sent out a 60 ton shipment today that will run around the two-ounce mark or better.

Anna J.

Lessee Fry and others, operating on the Anna J. property, sent out a carload shipment this morning that is expected to return very fair values.

Snowy Range.

A new plant of machinery is being installed today on the Snowy Range property on Raven hill. The property is under lease to McCost and Baker.

Ada Bell.

Work has resumed this morning on the Ada Bell property on Raven hill, a short distance below the Moose.

RETURNS COMING IN FROM C. K. & N. LEASE

Returns have been received by the officers of the C. K. and N. company in this city from three shipments of ore, five cars in all, which have been sent out since work was started up by Lessee Granfield. The values shown by 24 tons was $231 per ton. The values for two cars of 50 tons amounted to $96 per ton, while the returns received from two more cars showed values of $80 per ton, this being the lowest return received from the entire lot. The ore came from the 375-foot level in the shaft and it is said that there is a considerable body of it opened up.

The water is not preventing work at the present time, and no further trouble is expected from this source, at least until the shaft reaches a greater depth. It is understood, however, that it is not the intention of the lessee to continue sinking, until the drainage tunnel has been completed. It is expected, then, that the property will be drained to a depth of at least 600 feet.

Lessee Granfield is doing some development work in the two upper levels, but is confining the principal operations to the bottom or third level at a depth of 375 feet. The vein system found in this claim is supposed to be the same as that which has proved so rich in the adjoining property.

There are several cars of ore at the smelters from which returns are expected at any time, and the values are expected to run about the same as the ore which has just been settled for.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Prices on the mining exchange yesterday were somewhat improved and trading was extensive throughout the list, a larger number of stocks being dealt in than for many days.

Acacia was unchanged at 8 5-8 but Dante was a heavy trader at 2 1-8, 10,000 shares changing hands. Elkton sold at 38 with light sales and Findley was unchanged at 15. Gold Dollar was lower again, selling at 5 3-8 and 5 1-4, the closing sale being made at the latter figure. Golden Cycle advanced two cents per share, selling from 74 up to 76 and closing at the top price. Isabella was also higher, although there was little trading. The stock sold at 17. Mollie Gibson sold at 6 and Gould at 3 3-4. Portland was materially higher at $1.28 and 1,500 shares were traded in. Vindicator advanced 5 cents per share to 95, with that price bid at the close.

In the prospect department Beacon Hill Ajax was strong at 2 3-4 and Old Gold remained at 5. Mary Nevin held its high figure, 1 3-4. Spar sold at $5.50 per thousand shares, 10,000 shares changing hands. Wide Awake was traded in at $7.50 per thousand, 5,000 shares going at that figure.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report from J. S. Bache & Co., to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

New York, May 1.—We still see nothing in the general situation and outlook calculated to arouse any activity in bullish speculation and we look for nothing better than a continuation, for the ensuing week at least, of the present dull and narrow traders' market.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Much interest was shown in the course of foreign exchange, it being at a point which would permit gold shipments. But there have been a number of similar times in the past when exchange ruled at this point and no gold shipments were made. This we believe to be the case now. The statement of Louisville and Nashville for the month of March shows evidences of the prosperity of southern roads. There was no London market and foreign houses did nothing. The market is now in such a technical condition that it is hard to diagnose or predict as to its future.

Logan & Bryan—A favorable bank statement is expected tomorrow. The prevailing sentiment is bullish. All they need is for the outside to come in and buy the stocks. This the outside is not doing. Previous estimates on the wheat crop are being modified. We are inclined to think if there is any money in stocks it is on the short side.

Sharp & Bryan—Practically the only feature of interest in today's market was the rise of nearly five points which took place in D. & H. in the afternoon. Nothing definite came to light on the movement, which probably had something to do with the early adjournment of the investigation of the coal roads by Interstate commerce commission. However, the lower priced anthracite stocks while steady did not furnish any such animation as in the D. & H.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Furnished by Logan & Bryan to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

Chicago, May 1.—Wheat—Liverpool ¼ to ⅝ higher, Paris no comparison, Antwerp unchanged. Market here was more active and strong. The deliveries on May contracts which were fairly liberal went to Armour and the May shorts found it difficult to cover except at higher prices. This probably had some effect on the futures, but mainly the strength came from moderate to unfavorable crop reports. Snow's report said the weather had been unfavorable for growth and the recent freezing temperature calculated to start complaints. He thinks injury will occur only where wheat is jointed, but the percentage of the crop thus far advanced is small. Modern Miller says reports from many localities indicate a material change from the heretofore exceptional promising appearance of wheat. The plant is losing its heat by look and the growth is being checked and becoming spindly. These reports come from central region of winter wheat belt. On these unfavorable reports there was much better local buying of wheat and some increase in outside interest. There was nothing new in cable advices. Arrival shipments, 2,400,000, or about as expected. The severe frosts all through the winter wheat belt last night have so far failed to bring any authentic reports of damage. Estimated cars, 30.

Corn—Liverpool ¼ lower to ¼ higher. There were fair deliveries of corn on May contracts this morning and market started out weak. Later quite a fair shipping demand developed for No. 2 corn and this with the covering of shorts restored the early loss. On the whole the general tone of the market was strong. There was nothing either in the Modern Miller or Snow's report worse than the little progress is being made in plowing for corn. The cash situation seems the important one at the moment, but unless dryer or warmer weather soon to offer that will become a factor also. Estimated cars, 130.

Oats—Market was very steady. Snow says some oats are yet to sown. The prospect of warmer weather operated against any further advance in July. The trading was of a general character and on a small scale. Deliveries on May contracts were moderate. Estimated cars, 145.

Provisions—May pork a little higher. We must again call attention to our previous advices that short sales of May pork in this market does not look safe. The stock is very small and decreasing, no pork is being made. This is a considerable short interest and the holdings are concentrated. The rest of

WILL DEVELOP THE BONNIE NELL GROUND

The Bonnie Nell property on Raven hill, the controlling interest in which has been bargained for by the Princess Alice company, is being surveyed and sampled for the purpose of starting work as soon as the option on the stock has been taken up. There has been considerable development work done in the property from the 500-foot shaft, and it is likely that work will be started as soon as possible in this working. There are other shallower shafts which may also be used for exploratory work. It is understood that H. H. Barbee, manager of the Princess Alice company, will go east as soon as the investigation is completed and the report made.

ORE OPENED IN SHERIFF PROPERTY

A body of ore is reported to have been opened in the Sheriff property on Raven hill at a depth of 50 feet which shows values running from $16 to $25 to the ton, and small shipments have already been made from the find. The ore body is said to be about two feet wide and has been opened up for about 25 feet. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 100 feet and a crosscut run out to intercept the ore body at that depth. Gilbert and Hickman are the lessees on the property and they propose to thoroughly prospect the claim.

The resurvey of the Cripple Creek district is now practically assured. A telegram from Washington yesterday, sent to W. S. Brooks by Director Walcott, and extending the time for raising the $3,500 to May 15, was welcomed by those who have been canvassing for subscriptions and it is now expected that the balance of $500 needed to complete the fund will be raised within the next few days. Up to last night the amount had been increased to over $3,000, mostly by subscriptions from the Cripple Creek district. No effort was made yesterday in Colorado Springs to secure more subscriptions, as Mr. Donaldson was out of the city and Mr. Dorsey was busy with other matters.

It is reported that there is a strong probability that the examination of the Des Moines property on Raven hill will result in the sale of the ground to parties who will at once start work. About two weeks ago eastern parties started an investigation of the workings and the formation in the property, and it is understood were much pleased with the outlook for the future of the property. While no deal has as yet been closed it is stated that everything is favorable to a sale being consummated. The price at which the property is for sale is not given out, as it is understood that the prospective purchasers are to make an offer, which, if a reasonable one, it is the intention of the directors and stockholders of the company to accept. Two recent sales of the Bonnie Nell and Abe Lincoln properties on Raven have stimulated interest in this portion of the camp.

Hog market is heavy. Receipts, hogs, 50,000 against 40,000 last year. Packers are not offering much support to prices and with the liberal receipts of hogs are evidently disposed to buy them cheaper if possible. Cash demand is slow and stocks for the month of April and this show some increase.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of this dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Papa Wouldn't Kick.

Out our way there lives a small boy whose mother is bringing him up according to the most correct ideas. He came in the other day with his pockets quite full of "marbles"—glassies, crockies, jasper and all the other kinds boys hold dear. His mother asked where they all came from.

"won 'em playin' keeps," answered the boy.

"Why," said she, "don't you know it's wrong to play for keeps? It's nothing but gambling, and gambling is wicked. You must give them all back or I shall speak to your father about it."

"Oh that'll be all right," answered the boy. "Speak to father. He won't care. He didn't care a bit about that silver dish you won at the euchre party, and I guess he won't kick at my keeping a few old marbles."—(Washington Post.

ROOM COMES IN ALL-SEAT [illegible]

The [illegible] Young [illegible] will be his last [illegible] will play an [illegible] night in the Opera house next Friday night. He [illegible] with him a splendid [illegible] company, which standards with a four round boxing contest between Tom Corbett and his sparring partner, "Kid" McFadden. Corbett does not confine himself, however, to boxing with McFadden, but on his present tour he is meeting all comers in the feather weight class. Arrangements are now pending for an international battle with Dan Jordan, the English champion, and it is scarcely probable that Corbett will fight again previous to his contest with Jordan, whom he is exceedingly anxious to meet.

MARY ALDRICH.

Clyde Fitch, whose new comedy, "The Stubborness of Geraldine," will be produced by Mary Mannering at the Opera house next Tuesday evening, has one peculiarity which is not generally known. It is his dislike to visit Boston even when one of his plays is given in that city and his presence is needed for rehearsal. It is based upon an odd grievance of his against the Boston critics and newspaper men. Mr. Fitch's full name is William Clyde Fitch, but since he allied himself with the theatrical profession he has dropped the William, preferring to be called Clyde Fitch. A number of the Boston newspaper men, knowing his objection to the use of the discarded first name, take particular delight in using it on all occasions when referring to him, and his name always appears in the Boston papers as "William" or "W. C. Fitch." The playwright has written numerous remonstrances to Boston editors to have his name corrected but the letters seem to have no effect and he is seriously thinking of cutting Boston off his visiting list altogether.

DRUGGISTS MUST BE CHARY.

They Sell All Kinds of Hair Preparations and Hear to Disclaimers.

Druggists sell all kinds of hair preparations and as a rule they are wisely chary of giving preference to any particular one, but many of them have come out plainly for Newbro's Herpicide, the new treatment that absolutely kills the dandruff germ. H. Swanhart & Son, Champaign, Ill., say: "One customer of ours who did not have a hair on top of his head when he began to use Herpicide, now has a fair start towards a good head of hair. We believe Herpicide to be by far the best preparation of its kind on the market." Hundreds of similar testimonials from everywhere.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

REMODELING DENVER ROOM AT THE PRINTERS HOME

Workmen yesterday began the work of remodeling the Denver parlor at the printers home. A new hard-wood floor is to be put down and the walls are to be tastefully decorated and entirely new furniture installed. The expense attached to the improvements will be something like $350 and when completed the room will be one of the finest in the building. It is expected that everything will be in readiness for occupancy in the course of the next 10 days as the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

BOYS SENTENCED FOR STEALING COPPER WIRE

Thomas Moore, aged 19, and Fred Wilson, aged 21, were sentenced to 20 days each in the county jail yesterday for having stolen 80 pounds of copper wire from the Colorado Springs & Interurban Railway company several days ago. The charges against them were heard in Justice McClelland's court. They pleaded that it was their first offense against the law and Justice McClelland imposed a light sentence for that reason.

BURIAL PERMITS—City Clerk MacMillian issued 34 burial permits during the month of April. Six of these permits were for infants.

THE PLAY—Kate Claxton appeared at the Opera house last night in "The Two Orphans," and gave a good presentation to a fair-sized audience. The play is too well-known to warrant extended comment. The production last night was adequately staged and the company fairly well balanced.

Not Angry

[illegible]

[illegible] of the [illegible] Federation of Women's clubs will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. building.

There will be the annual election of officers and other important business according as adjusted by the state president, Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, on "The Club and the Community Beautiful."

After the meeting is over there will be a social hour in the parlors of the association, when all present can have an opportunity for forming the acquaintance of Mrs. Bradford.

SMOKER AT THE EL PASO CLUB

According to invitations received by all members of the El Paso club, they will be entertained at a smoker this evening by one whose acts of legerdemain have astonished the courts of Europe and the metropolis of the east. In addition to his sleight-of-hand skill he has made a profound study of the science of palmistry, and the audience may be prepared to be startled at his revelations of the past and his predictions of the future." The usual collation will be served.

HOWELL'S ENGAGEMENT TO BENEFIT LOCAL UNION

The talented impersonator, Augustus F. Howell, who is to appear at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Monday evening next in the role of "David Harum," is greatly in demand. Every date is filled and from here Mr. Howell proceeds to the Pacific coast, his second trip in that direction this year.

Quite a sum of money will be required by the City Endeavor union to meet the expenses incurred in entertaining the visiting C. E.'s. Whatever fund is created from the "David Harum" evening will be devoted to the entertainment fund. Present indications are for a crowded house so much desired by those interested.

So Sweet and Pleasing in Taste.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

APRIL REMARKABLE FOR SMALL NUMBER OF BIRTHS

April was remarkable for the small number of births, only 10 being reported to City Clerk MacMillan. Following is the list:

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Hanson, 308 Olive street, girl; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Crow, 112 So. Sierra Madre street, girl; Mr. and Mrs. John Vallino, 119 W. Las Animas street, boy; Mr. and Mrs. James C. Donnavan, 731 E. Boulder street, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Morton Pike, 710 E. Cucharas street, boy; Mr. and Mrs. David Flatt, 1288 N. Custer, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hastings, girl; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith (colored), 118 E. Cucharas, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney R. Bartlett, 1120 Wood avenue, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koehler, 1407 Grant avenue, boy.

An Epidemic of the Grip.

"There has been a great epidemic of the grip in this vicinity for the past two months," says W. D. Wilcox of Logan, N. Y. "All of my customers that I could induce to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy were cured without the aid of a doctor; only two employed a doctor and they did not use this remedy. They could have saved money by using it. Money is not all that this remedy saves. It saves health and sometimes life. Every cold or attack of the grip weakens the system, lowers the vitality and paves the way for more serious diseases. Make a friend of this remedy and it will save you health and money." For sale by all druggists.

SUDDEN DEATH AT THE PRINTERS HOME

T. J. Burgess, one of the oldest residents of the Printers home, dropped dead by his bedside while dressing yesterday morning. He was found dead on the floor by his roommate, William Miles. An examination showed that Burgess had been dead for some time, having evidently fallen while dressing himself. The cause of the sudden death is attributed to apoplexy.

The deceased was born in Belfast, Me., February 28, 1833. He spent a large portion of his life on the Pacific coast, coming to the Printers home September 1, 1895, from San Francisco union No. 21. He was a Scottish Rite Mason but it is not known where he held his membership. His only known relatives are a sister and a nephew, W. K. Towne of Seattle. They have been notified of his death and the remains are being held awaiting instructions.

FULLERTON SAYS MILLMEN HAVE AGREED TO WAIT

The special committee from the Mill and Smeltermen's union No. 125, appointed to confer upon new wage schedule at the Colorado City mills, will meet with General Manager Hugh W. Fullerton of the Telluride Reduction company today. Mr. Fullerton said last night that the matter of a new schedule would probably be postponed until May 15, when the mill men are expecting a report relative to the situation at the Standard mill.

The employes of the Telluride this week took a vote in regard to the extension of time, and Mr. Fullerton explained the opinion that the matter would be deferred at today's meeting until May 15.

NEW ACTING CLERK AT BUILDING INSPECTOR'S OFFICE

Mayor Ira Hardy announced yesterday that he had requested Charles E. [illegible] to take charge of the clerical work in the building commissioner's office until the regular appointee shall be made under the provisions of the competitive examination.

Mr. Shiers is connected with the office of T. MacLaren, architect. He will try to keep up the accumulated work and get it in shape for the new appointee. The building inspector's office has been moved to the old city hall building on Nevada avenue. The contest having shaken of the competitive examination of candidates for the office, it is understood, will arrange for a [illegible] in a few days.

The water supply is the first consideration in selecting farm land in an irrigation country. The Grand Valley has the largest and most reliable water supply in Colorado.

Grand Valley fruit is superior to that raised in any other part of the west. It has taken first prize every place it has ever been exhibited.

The Grand Valley has the best climate in Colorado. The winters are mild and short. The summers cool and pleasant. It is the most beautiful part of the State.

One of the largest Government canals will be constructed in the Grand Valley. Choice land under this canal can be bought now at $10 and $12 per acre. It will be worth 30 as soon as the cars are placed under construction.

We are the largest dealers in farm lands in the west. Send for our literature. It gives full information of the Grand Valley, descriptions and prices of all kinds of farm lands for sale. Inclose six cents for postage.

We furnish cheap transportation to see our properties. Free if you buy.

Saturday's Money Savers

How can you do it? is a question often asked by our customers who notice the quality of the meat on our blocks and then compare our prices with those of other markets.

A glance at our refrigerators (the largest in town) tells the story.

Cooled by the ideal dry air process, meat keeps in our boxes retaining the proper age and tenderness without acquiring that musty taste so often found in sloppy ice boxes.

Our immense trade enables us to buy in large quantities at the lowest price and our market is always in charge of expert meat cutters who understand thoroughly the art of preparing steaks, roasts, etc., for your table.

PRINTERS HOME EXTENDS INVITATION TO EDITORS TO VISIT THIS CITY

An invitation has been extended to the Arkansas Press association by Charles Deacon, superintendent of the Union Printers home, to visit that institution during the western trip which the association contemplates making this summer. Mr. Deacon suggests that the Pike's Peak region be included in the itinerary and offers to aid the association in making up the route for the excursion and to furnish any information about the country which the association may desire. Mr. Deacon spent his early life in Arkansas, having been for many years employed at Little Rock and Hot Springs and therefore feels a personal interest in having the association visit this region and especially the Printers home.

SEVEN HUNDRED MEN ON STRIKE IN KANSAS CITY

By Associated Press.

Kansas City, May 1.—Eight hundred sewer workers and 200 iron molders struck in this city tonight. The men demand a new wage scale and a recognition of the union.

The strike of the sewer workers will cause the sewer contractors great inconvenience and financial loss unless an agreement is reached at once, as there is much unfinished sewer work in all parts of the city. The total number of unionists on strike here is 1,300.

INCREASED WAGES AND SHORTER HOURS IN BOSTON

By Associated Press.

Boston, May 1.—It is stated that more than 15,000 members of various trades unions in this city were granted their May day demands for increased wages and shorter hours, or both, today and that there are now barely 1,000 trades unionists who have not yet succeeded in obtaining the signatures of their employers to the new scale.

Those who have been granted their demands include all painters and decorators, 4,500 carpenters, 600 marine engineers, 400 artificial stone workers, 400 metal lathers, all the structural iron workers and all the boiler workers and ship builders.

TO INVESTIGATE DEATH.

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, May 1.—The death of Daniel T. Hedges, formerly a promoter and millionaire of Sioux City, was reported to the coroner last night, heart failure being assigned as the cause. A cursory investigation by the coroner disclosed the fact that Hedges entered his bath last night and was overcome by heat. The water was heated by a patent gas appliance. His son Harry heard the deep breathing of his father and summoned his mother, and between the two they managed to get the husband and father to bed. A physician was summoned, but when the doctor arrived Hedges was beyond aid and died shortly. In view of the conflicting reports concerning the death of Hedges, the coroner has determined to hold an autopsy.

TOWN ESCAPED FLAMES.

By Associated Press.

Bradford, Pa., May 1.—Late advices from Wilsonville, the town reported to have been wiped out by flames yesterday, indicate that it escaped almost miraculously from the fate which had been predicted for it. The property losses in the vicinity are large, however. Mount Jewett also escaped with small losses. But in the vicinity of Simpson and Kingham, the destruction of oil property was complete over a wide area. It is estimated that at least 1,000 oil well rigs in McKean county were destroyed.

FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN.

By Associated Press.

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Over two blocks of buildings in West Point, Va., the York river terminus of the Southern railroad, are in ashes as the result of a fire of unknown origin, which started early today. Among the buildings burned are the express office, the postoffice, the Pemberton house and a number of stores. At one time it was feared that the Terminal hotel and Beach Park buildings, the summer resort property, would go, but the flames were stayed. The people fought the fire with buckets until the arrival of the Richmond firemen when it was got under control. Loss, $125,000.

The Most Popular of Shows.

The famous Campbell Bros' shows is duly announced for the grand exhibition at Colorado Springs on Friday, May 8. It is the consensus of opinion that the above shows are years in advance of all others in point of merit, in the possession of modern feats and features that have no peer or parallel. Its menagerie containing the choicest and most rare specimens of zoology's realms. Its marvelous ethnological display being unequaled and the aquatic wonders embracing deep sea monsters as well as amphibia. The arenic attractions are numerous and novel and without doubt far surpass in general interest any seen here or elsewhere in the past. We look for a very large attendance on the occasion. Preparations are being made to entertain the masses so that none who visit us on May 8 shall say on their return home that their reception at Colorado Springs wasn't cordial and hearty.

Won't Get a Hurried Return.

"I must see the editor at once!" the woman cried as though it were a matter of life and death.

She had slipped past that watch dog of the sanctum, the office boy, and her shrill cry fell upon the startled ears of the half dozen "readers" for "The X Magazine." The office boy would have minded neither her tone nor her words. The "readers" were supposed to be protected from all this, and they did mind.

She was a woman who thought she could write, one of the many that haunt the magazine offices. She was perhaps the poorest writer of the lot and she was most persistent with her manuscripts.

Just then the editor appeared. She recognized him from a photograph which she had seen long before. She waltzed up to him, tapped him playfully on the arm with her last manuscript. "I am Florino Jones," she said, "though perhaps you know of me as the woman with the flame washed hair." She threw out as a life-line a lock of it inches long.

"What can I do for you?" asked the editor.

"Oh, you dear, good man!" she cried, and the venerable editor prepared to counter any embrace. "You will right a great wrong which has been done me, I'm sure you will."

"What have to do with it?" he asked as mildly as possible.

"The wrong was done me in this office, that's what you have to do with it." She used stage whispers for this part. "Day before yesterday I sent a manuscript to you. It was one of the best I ever did. This morning it was returned to me." Her face attempted a look of horror that was laughable.

"It was doubtless read carefully," said the editor, beginning to frown.

"What! Read carefully! You had it only one day! I don't believe it was read at all. You take it, my dear man, and don't give me such a hurried decision."

The editor bowed and took the manuscript. He bowed again toward the door.

"No hurried decision, you dear man, you," she simpered on the threshold.

"Why will these women insist on calling me 'dear man?' he growled, as he carried the manuscript over to his head reader. "See that she does not get a hurried decision on this, please." He slammed the door to his "den."

"Not to be returned before January 1, 1904," was the inscription put upon the envelope. "There," said the reader, "she'll never think this decision hurried."

In a month the woman will begin crying for her manuscript, but the entire office force has taken an oath that she does not get it for one full year.—(New York Tribune.

MEN OF NATIONAL FAME ENDORSE PE-RU-NA FOR CATARRH

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Consul Barnes Says: "Pe-ru-na is a Most Excellent Tonic for Debilitated Systems."

Hon. Almont Barnes, late U. S. Consul to Venezuela, S. A., ex-Chief of Bureau of Statistics of State Department, now in Bureau of Statistics in Agricultural Department, Washington, D. C., writes:

"Peruna is not only a remedy for catarrhal troubles, but equally as effective for colds and aches arising from the same. It is a most excellent tonic for debilitated systems.

"Many of my friends have used it successfully, and I have no hesitation in giving it my recommendation."—(Almont Barnes.

Congressman Mark H. Dunnell, National Hotel, Washington, D. C., writes:

"Your Peruna being used by myself and many of my friends and acquaintances, not only as a cure for catarrh, but also as an admirable tonic for physical recuperation, I gladly recommend it to all persons requiring such remedies."—(Mark H. Dunnell.

We have letters of recommendation from over fifty members of Congress, besides scores of other letters from men of national prominence, attesting to the virtues of Peruna as a catarrhal tonic.

Among the prominent men who recommend Peruna, are General James Longstreet, of Washington, D. C.; Register of the Treasury Judson W. Lyons; Hon. J. M. Morgan, U. S. Consul to Australia, and W. S. Smithmeyer, architect of the famous Congressional library of Washington, D. C.

Hon. Alphonso Hart, ex-Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., says:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I have been using Peruna for catarrh, and can cheerfully recommend it to all as a cure for the same, and it is also a good tonic."—(A. Hart.

Charles B. Scott, County Clerk, Floyd county, Ind., writes from New Albany, Ind.:

"I have tried Peruna as a tonic and have found it of inestimable value to increase the appetite and induce healthful sleep. It seems to relieve the system of all waste matter and to tone up and strengthen the nerves in a remarkably short time. In comparing it with other nerve tonics on the market, I consider it vastly superior, and so do many others who have tried it."—(Hon. Charles B. Scott.

Peruna cures catarrh because it reaches the source of catarrh.

Peruna keeps the system in a fine, healthy condition, because it restores the functions of every organ and brings vigor to the organs of nervous system.

C. D. Taylor, Supt. of Health Clerk, Clerk Board of Health, Jacksonville, Fla., writes:

"The health of the poor of a large city is always a question of vital interest, not only to the city officials but to every citizen. It has been a source of much satisfaction to me to find that a large number of working people in moderate circumstances have accepted Peruna as their family medicine. It has cured a large number of cases, especially of catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach, and for building up the general health it cannot fail to prove a help and a blessing to any community where it is generally adopted and used. I have found it an honest, reliable remedy and am pleased to indorse it."—(C. D. Taylor.

J. H. Hinplegate, Supt. of Public Works, 6 West Sixth street, Lexington, Ky., writes:

"I find that Peruna is an excellent medicine, especially for catarrhal affections and all diseases leading to consumption, bronchial troubles or stomach troubles. It also acts as a preventative and keeps the system in a healthy condition so that it easily throws off disease. It is an excellent tonic and a great appetizer, and as a large number of those who have been using it speak very highly of its curative powers I am satisfied that my opinion of it is correct, and that it is deserving of high indorsement."—(J. H. Hinplegate.

Chas. E. Jenkins, Venerable Consul of Canton, Camp 2922, Modern Woodmen of America, writes, from Aurora, Ill., Branch Office, as follows:

"I recommend Peruna because I have found by personal experience that it is not a common patent medicine, but a scientifically prepared medicine which simply cures catarrh and cleanses the blood of its impurities, keeping the system in a fine, healthy condition. I regard it as rather a carefully prepared physician's prescription, and have never found any which acts as promptly and permanently as Peruna.

"It deserves the highest praise, and I know that those who have tried it have perfect faith in it."—(C. E. Jenkins.

Peruna cleanses the blood of its impurities because it regulates liver and organs that make good.

Mr. Jenkins is right. Peruna is a carefully prepared medication, prepared by one of the oldest and best known physicians in America. This is why it acts promptly and permanently.

A book containing testimonials of prominent men and women, who use Peruna, sent free by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

NEW WOMEN TO BE TAUGHT BY ELIJAH WOMEN

Colorado Springs will have the chance of hearing Elijah, the Third, who is making a campaign against the devil by means of mass meetings in what he calls "the wicked cities of the west." In other words, John Alexander Dowie, the famous head of the Zion church of Zion City, Illinois, near Chicago, is coming with a band of 250 followers.

J. H. Smith, an elder in the church, is the advance agent for the prophet. He reached Denver yesterday, where he announced the coming of Dowie and the plan of campaign, embracing a town-to-town canvass of the state, beginning at Denver and then going to Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek and through the large mining camps. The elder will engage, if possible, the Temple theater for the meetings the prophet contemplates giving here and after arrangements are completed will go on to Cripple Creek. Just when Dowie will come can not be announced by the elder as the work in New York, a taxing the Dowieites to the utmost. The elder says the large cities are "the shares of the devil," while the mining camps, the foundation of money, are "the center of constant trouble," and this belief is responsible for Dowie's plans for redeeming Colorado.

KING EDWARD'S NEW POLICY.

The Paris visit of King Edward is causing interested comment. It is the first time in history that an English king has paid a visit to a French president, and the event gains immensely in interest, because it takes place, not in remote Algiers, as was at first expected, but in Paris, the capital of civilization. Opinions are rife as to the occult significance of this meeting, which is really one of pure friendliness and international courtesy; and especial stress is laid on the fact that his majesty, though he has made a round of Latin potentates and heads of states, shows no immediate intention of visiting his distinguished nephew, Kaiser Wilhelm. It is even suggested that we are on the eve of a new European combination, to offset the Austro-Russian co-operation in the Balkans, to which Germany has now given a formal adherence. It is said that France, England and Italy are about to combine, and that Edward VII has already spoken of Portugal as his ally. It is further said that this is a new step in the personal policy of [illegible] intervention gradually being developed by the king; his part in ending the South African war and his personal understanding with the kaiser in the Venezuelan matter being quoted as steps already taken. We are even told that the Irish land purchase bill is another result of the king's personal initiative, and that he has set himself to carry out Queen Victoria's idyl of friendlier relations between England and Ireland, and has other views presently to be carried out. It is obvious that all this is part gossip, part guess work, and that some of it is sheer fancy. The king will return his imperial nephew's visit in due time, and the Dreibund has not to be suspected. It is, on the contrary, likely to be applied in a new direction closely interesting to ourselves; a system of preferential tariffs among the central European nations, aimed against the American [illegible].
